MOUNT PISA STATION.

Architect is a rich bay, with black points; stands 16½ hands, with great substance and quality. He has proved himself a sure foal-getter. He was bred by John Field, Esq., of Tasmania, and his stock in that island have turned out remarkably good on the turf, as hunters, and as weight-carrying hacks. "Mechanic," (then a two-year old colt,) by Architect, ran well at the last Hobart Town meeting in the Railway Stakes, although not fit, being not long off ship-board, having been shipped to Lyttelton, where, owing to the want of due clean certificates from the port of shipment, he was not allowed to land although pronounced free from disease by competent veterinary surgeons at Lyttelton, and his owner was compelled to ship him home again.

Architect's sire, "Peter Wilkins," is the sire also of the "Quack," winner of the Melbourne Cup; "Benvalio," winner of the Sydney Derby; "Flying Dutchman," the hero of the Australian Cup of 1872; "W.F." the hurdle racer, and other horses; and is full brother to "Rose de Florence," the dam of "Maribyrnong," (the most fashionable sire in Australia) "Ferryman," "King of the Ring," etc.

PEDIGREE:

Architect by Peter Wilkins, by the Flying Dutchman from Boarding-School Miss, by Plenipotentiary from Marpessa, the dam of Pocahontas, (Stockwell's dam.) His dam, Governor, by Conrad from Bequest, by Snoozer from Medea, by Mozart from Whizgig, by Whalebone. For full tabulated pedigree, see Vol. V., New Zealand Stud Book.

Terms £5 5s.

Groomage 5s, paid at service.

ANDERS OLSON.

December 20, 1875.

NOTICE.

As Mr A. OLSON has seen fit to make my name the talk of the district, I think it only fair to let the public know the following facts:—

1. That I did not leave Mr Olson's residence till his violence made it unsafe for me to remain.
2. That he frequently, without provocation, ordered me to "clear out."
3. That since leaving him, I have twice asked him to sign a deed of separation, which he refused; and, therefore,
4. I continue to hold him responsible for my debts.

ANNIE OLSON.

DUNSTAN ELECTION.

Person having accounts against the Undersigned requested to send them in, addressed care of AMES HAZLETT, Esq., J.P., Cromwell or Clyde.

VINCENT PYKE.

Cromwell, December 27, 1875.

BIRTH.

On December 23, at Bannockburn, Cromwell, the wife of Mr GEORGE CHILTON, of a daughter.

Cromwell Argus,

AND NORTHERN GOLD-FIELDS GAZETTE.

CROMWELL: FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1875.

The election for the Dunstan district, which for the past ten days has been the prevailing topic of conversation, has come and gone, and Mr VINCENT PYKE is the chosen of the people to represent their wants and wishes in political sentiments in the ensuing session of the General Assembly. For reasons which appeared to us good, we found ourselves somewhat opposed to that gentleman's candidature, though not bitterly opposed; but now the electors have pronounced their verdict in such an unmistakable manner, we must perforce assume an obedience to the maxim which enjoins that majorities shall rule, that the fittest man has been chosen for the vacant seat. In doing this, do we for one moment wish to do so in any ungracious manner. We accept the situation the more cheerfully because we are aware that we shall have as our representative a man of acknowledged ability. We know that he has had long and extensive experience of goldfields matters particularly, and that he possesses to a large extent the gift which enables a man to do good service in a deliberative body to any cause which he undertakes to support or defend. We go further, and say distinctly, remembering for the time being all the good things we could say of the victor in the late struggle, that we gladly bow to the decision of the majority and shall be glad in time to come to give him all the moral support we can in doing his duty to the country at large and to the district for which he has just been elected.

Much discussion, however, has been lately cited in political matters, and many a deep interest in them now when we did so before; and it will be well that Mr PYKE should realise the difficulty he has undertaken to perform. We trust will not be considered offensive when we assure Mr PYKE in plain terms that his conduct in the ensuing Assembly will be more carefully and eagerly scrutinized by his present constituents than it has or been before by any body which he has had the honor to represent. His late opponents might naturally be expected to do this; but we speak advisedly when we say the keenest scrutiny will be made by his strongest supporters. Strange though it may seem when speaking of an old politician like Mr Pyke, we think we are correct in saying that he is now on his trial as a politician. Should he fail this time, he fails for ever.

If our member devote his whole energies to the duties now devolving upon him, if he consistently and steadily follow the one line of policy from the beginning to the end of the session, no man will be more popular in the district than Mr Pyke. His present supporters will rejoice to think their action has been vindicated by the conduct of their candidate, and his late opponents will be able, not as now merely to acquiesce in the verdict, but to be glad that such a verdict was returned. For ourselves, though Mr Pyke shall have no favor at our hands, he may confidently rely upon having a "fair field."

It is customary amongst journalists at this particular season to wish their readers a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year," but on this occasion we shall have to slightly vary the old greeting by expressing a hope that, having enjoyed a merry Christmas, they will now experience

"A HAPPY NEW YEAR."

The opportunity is a suggestive one to us who seldom enjoy the privilege of speaking to our readers from a personal point of view, and we shall take advantage of it by further expressing the hope that we shall be credited with the intention in our dealings with public matters with having been actuated with a sincere desire to advance the common weal—"to nothing extenuate nor set down aught in malice" when dealing with individuals; and to give a true and faithful account of the progress of the district in its various enterprises. To what extent we have succeeded in aiding the progress visible in every part of the district we cannot tell; but this much we may say: that our endeavor has been a striving to abide by the truth and justice in our dealing with matters which came under notice. This course we will continue to pursue, and feel assured of meeting with the favor of our readers, to whom again we wish "A Happy New Year."

The last crushing of the Cromwell Company realized, we understand, something like 520 ounces. We have not heard the exact number of tons of which this is the result.

The local mail services for the year 1876 have been accepted as follows:—Oyde and Queenstown, John Chaplin; Cromwell and Nevis, via Carrickton, Thomas Gilmour; Cromwell and Bendigo, Thomas Gilmour; Bendigo and Cardrona, via Albertown and Pembroke, Thomas Gilmour.

Mr Colclough, auctioneer, is advertised to submit to auction, to-morrow, those valuable freehold premises owned and occupied by Mr Scott, baker, together with other valuable property. Immediately afterwards, Mr Colclough will offer a number of valuable horses etc., in the estate of the late W. U. Goodall.

It is only just necessary to remind the reader that the Cromwell Lodge of emblems give their liberal and attractive entertainment this evening, in the Athenaeum Hall. So popular have the social gatherings in connection with this body become that it is unnecessary for us to enlarge on the enjoyment which will be afforded to-night. All that we can do is to advise punctuality, as the programme is extensive and there is sure to be a big crowd to serve. Tea on table at 6.30.

Our Bendigo friends present a most varied and attractive programme of sports and races to be competed for to-day and to-morrow. We believe no pains have been spared to render everything as attractive and pleasing to the visitor as possible, and no doubt the efforts will be responded to by a large concourse of people. A considerable sum of money is offered in prizes, and we notice the entry-money is fixed at a low rate, thus offering every inducement to competitors to enter the lists.

A paper to be called the Evening News is about to be commenced in Dunedin. The first number will probably be issued to-morrow. The fact that the projectors (Auckland men) are importing compositors from the North at a lower rate of wages than the Otago standard is causing great excitement and indignation in the trade in Dunedin, and resolutions have been passed by the "typo's" to do their utmost to crush out the venture,—even to the extent of starting a new co-operative paper, with the object, we suppose, of running the obnoxious journal out of the field.

A disastrous fire occurred at Oyde on Wednesday evening last, whereby Mr James Parks, of the Hartley Arms Hotel, suffered serious loss. From what we can learn, shortly after midnight the stable of Mr Park was discovered to be in flames, and before assistance could be rendered the building was completely demolished. Unfortunately there were in the stable at the time three valuable horses owned by Mr Parks, and it was found impossible to rescue them. The poor animals were literally roasted alive. Much sympathy is felt for Mr Parks in his loss, which is a total one, as he had not a penny of insurance on the property. It is not known how the fire originated, but it is thought to have been caused by the carelessness of a person who took a horse from the stable shortly before the burning of the building.

Owing to careless blundering somewhere—we will take the trouble to find out—our usual telegram has not come to hand this week.

It is notified that C. B. Smith, tailor, and J. Arnal, stonemason, both of Queenstown, have filed declarations of insolvency.

It will be recollected that some months since a painful feeling was experienced in Dunedin owing to the suicide of Mr Jules Langeisne, a gentleman widely known in the city. It was supposed he took his life in a fit of depression owing to monetary difficulties. It is now said on authority that by the death of a relative a fortune of £80,000 has been left Mr Langeisne. The news came by last Home mail.

A Melbourne telegram under date 18th instant reports that an important discovery has been made by the Clunes Quartz Company of a new reef at a depth of a thousand feet, being the deepest gold-bearing reef in the Colony. Large heavy gold is seen in the blue slate, and also in the solid quartz. This disproves the statement that the reefs get poorer as they deepen.

At last week's meeting of the Waste Lands Board, the Warden at Arrow forwarded a petition from Mr William Belton, and letters from Messrs John Evans and Martin Houlaghan, requesting that Ranger McMoran might be instructed not to take further proceedings against them for their illegal occupation of Crown lands until their crops were off the ground. It was resolved that they be allowed to take their crops off the ground, and then to remove.

At last monthly meeting of the Cromwell Kilwinning Lodge, S.C., the following brethren were appointed for the ensuing year to the offices set opposite their names:—R. W. M., Bro. J. A. Preshaw; S.W., Bro. W. Taylor; J.W., Bro. C. Wright; S.D., Bro. R. A. Brown; J.D., Bro. J. Scott; Secretary, Bro. R. Brown; I.G., Bro. W. Foreman; Steward, Bro. J. Stuart; Assistant do., Bro. J. S. Burres; Organist, Bro. C. Nicholas.

For the representation of the Tuapoka district, Mr J. C. Brown was re-elected without opposition. Mr J. C. Chapple retired from the contest,—if, indeed, he ever had any intention of going to the poll.—For Invercargill, the struggle appears to have been an exciting one, the result being the return of Mr Lumsden, a confirmed Provincialist, over Mr Culbertson, the late member, by a majority of 30, the numbers being—Lumsden, 180; Culbertson, 150.

On the 18th inst., a man named Thomas Seale, who has a wife and eight children at Caversham, fell from a wool press on Stronach's Station, Ma. Valley, and broke one of his thighs. He was conveyed to Dunedin, a distance of 150 miles, the requisite appliances for setting the limb not being on hand at the Clyde Hospital. It says little for the management of the Institution that a man should be obliged to undergo the agonies of such a journey for the reason given.

During the past week two deaths by drowning have occurred at Riverton. On Tuesday week Mr Charles Smith, many years Clerk to the Otago Provincial Council, went into Jacob's River to bathe, and his clothes were found on the bank some time afterwards. The body has not been recovered.—On the Friday following, a man named Charles Lyon, a butcher in Riverton, while bathing was observed to sink suddenly, and never rose again, although his comrades used every effort to rescue him. Lyons was a widower, and leaves four children.

THE CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES.

ROBERT BRUCE LODGE.

Each succeeding year illustrates more forcibly the fact that as the Cromwell district grows in days, so does it proportionately increase in the number and measure of those social and sociable institutions which indicate a settled and permanent prosperity. And at no season of the year is this more strikingly presented than at Christmas, when labor having for the nonce ceased, relaxation from the ordinary toils of life is sought in harmless mirth, and pleasure is found in contributing to the general gaiety by individual or joint efforts. Time was when a merry Christmas implied deep potations and a severe strain on the human assimilator, and it must be taken as a token of strangely and happily altered times when we find now prevailing so very different a state of things. It is not our intention to indite a homily on this subject, although there is ample room for an observer to discourse on it at almost illimitable length; but the moral of it all is, that society is now beginning to feel the potent effect of sacrificing the animal appetite to the higher moral attributes of our nature. Therefore it is we see societies of men and women banding themselves together for the common weal, and it can scarcely be wondered at that their precept and example is taking a firm hold on the masses and quietly but surely fashioning them in a mould widely differing from that which has so long been accepted. Foremost amongst these regenerating influences is that exercised by the Good Templar body, and so far as this district is concerned it is superfluous for us to attempt to point out the good it has accomplished. Its daily increasing strength is incontestible proof that its aims are in the right direction. But what we more pointedly speak of this Order at present for is to refer to the attractions it holds out—at no little expense and inconvenience—for enjoyment and pleasure unmixed with the dissipation which is so often a leading characteristic of so-called pleasure. Balls, concerts, picnics, and other means of recreation are initiated and carried out with unvarying success, and yet without the element which was long popularly held to be an essential to such success. The secret of this no doubt lies in the unanimity of the body in striving to attain prosperity; and also—perhaps to a greater extent—in the fact that money is more plentiful and can be better afforded—a result flowing from adhesion to the leading principles of the society.

The Cromwell and Bannockburn branches appear wisely to make these entertainments a special feature in their management, and at the present season both have gone into the spirit of the times with a will and vigor worthy of commendation. The Bruce Lodge at Bannockburn determined to celebrate its anniversary by a public pic-nic and ball on Boxing-day, and the event had long been looked forward to with pleasurable anticipations. Unfortunately, however, the Fates were adverse so far as the pic-nic was concerned. Jupiter Pluvius asserted his sovereignty, and poured down unpitifully till far on in the forenoon. It was at one time thought advisable to postpone the affair till next day, but the rain ceased and intermittent blinks of sunshine determined the promoters on going on. We much regret that pressure of business owing to elections, &c., kept us from attending, and as a consequence our report of the proceedings must this week be brief. A very considerable number of persons were present on the pleasure-ground during the day, and in the catering Mr Geer fairly surpassed himself. Various games and sports were got up, and altogether the affair was a most pleasing one, notwithstanding the literal "wet blanket" which threatened to envelope it. The Cromwell Brass Band rendered excellent service under the leadership of Mr Whetter, both at the pic-nic and at the ball in the evening, which was a great success and a fitting close to a well-planned and energetically carried out anniversary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CHILDREN'S PIC-NIC.

One of those small and yet great events which it gives us pleasure to chronicle took place on Monday last, when the children connected with the Church of England Sunday School, numbering about 50, met to celebrate their anniversary by a pic-nic. The weather during the morning was unpromising but it was determined that the youngsters should not be disappointed, and about one o'clock a start was made from Mrs Wakefield's residence in Melmore Terrace for "Kidd's hall," kindly placed at their disposal by Mr Starkey. A pleasant sight it was to witness the bright faces brimming over with enjoyment as they marched two and two loaded with baskets, suspicious-looking parcels, boxes of fruit, and small flags innumerable. Arrived in the hall, an immediate attack was made on the eatables and serious damage done in every direction, after which, the weather having cleared up, the whole party were conveyed to Mr Towan's paddock, and with the slight drawback of a shower or two, thoroughly enjoyed themselves at various games till tea was announced at 5 p.m., when the attack was renewed and the last tower (of cake) demolished. A pleasant hour or two was afterwards spent in foot-racing and kindred sports, and the party returned to town before eight o'clock pleased with their day's amusement, and only in time to escape a down-pour of rain.

The onerous duties of collector, caterer, and marshal were undertaken by Mrs Wakefield, and with a little male assistance successfully carried out; in fact, to that lady's untiring efforts from first to last is due the success of a gathering which we do not doubt will long be remembered with pleasure in many a Cromwell home.

THE BAZAAR.

The bazaar in aid of the Catholic Church and School funds was opened on Tuesday evening in the Athenaeum Hall, and has been, as it deserved, an unqualified success. The tastefully-arranged stalls were presided over by several ladies, who used their utmost powers—and those of no mean order—to induce visitors to exercise their liberality, with a result which no one who entered the hall will require to be informed of. On Wednesday evening the clearing auction sale took place for the disposal of those goods that remained unsold, and Mr Colclough's efforts as auctioneer resulted in a clearance of the whole stock, which comprised not only a great variety but some valuable goods. We noticed a magnificent wedding-cake as a really elegant adornment to the room, and it was certainly a most generous donation, and we believe brought good value. Live stock was plentiful, while some of the fancy goods provided gave evidence of the hearty support given by the residents throughout the district.

Some idea may be gained of the success of the undertaking when it is stated that it is anticipated not less than £230 will result to the funds.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY ELECTION.

NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES.

The nomination of candidates for the representation of the Dunstan district in the Assembly took place at the Court-house Clyde, on Thursday, 23rd inst., at noon. Mr W. L. Simpson, chief Returning Officer presided, and, having read the writ, signified his readiness to receive nominations.

Mr George Aitken had pleasure in nominating, and Mr James Ritchie in seconding, Mr B. R. Baird as a fit and proper person to represent the district.

Mr Thomas Sims proposed, Mr William Auckland seconded Mr Vincent Pyke.

Mr Baird intimated that as he purposed addressing them that evening in another place, it would be unnecessary for him to go into any details as to his views. His interest in the district was large and extensive, and consequently it would be to his advantage to advance the welfare of the district. Although he was not endowed with the eloquence of Mr Pyke, yet he considered he had a claim on the electors for their support, and could assure them he would strenuously act on their behalf.

Mr Pyke did not desire to detain the electors long, but he had a word or two to say. He was grateful for his opponent's tribute to his (Mr Pyke's) eloquence, and he might assure them that ability to speak well was by no means the least requirement in a member of the Assembly. Much had been urged about Mr Baird being a local man, but if he (Mr Pyke) was not a local man he would like to know what constituted one. He had lived in the district years before Mr Baird came to it and still looked over its welfare with a jealous eye. As to Mr Baird's interest in the district, he would tell them what that was—it often reached as high as 50 per cent. If they returned Mr Baird the interests he would be most careful to represent would be those of—B. R. Baird. He (the speaker) claimed to have an infinitely greater stake in the country than Mr Baird. He might not have so much money but he had greater riches—his children, whose future was bound up in the country. Like Cornelius of old he could say to those present—These are my jewels; my stake in the country, and he flattered himself they far transcended in value any mere money-bags. (Cheers). He had no doubt he would be returned and he could assure them that all interests would receive his best attention. It would, however, be necessary for his friends to be firm and unanimous, as they had opposed to his election the squatters, the Provincial Government, and even its officers were canvassing against him (cries of shame! and no.) It was a fact, and he would ask his supporters to do their best to make his majority a large and triumphant one (applause.)

Further proceedings were then adjourned till Monday, 27th inst., and the meeting closed with a vote of thanks to Mr Simpson.

THE ELECTION.

Apart from the liveliness imparted by the holiday season there was little in Cromwell town on Monday to indicate that the struggle which had been so long looked for had now come to the final bout. Silent, but by no means slow, work on both sides was the order of the day, and although neither leather-lunged bellman nor flaming poster invited the "free and independent" to "roll up" on behalf of their favorite man, yet their was a strong under-current of interest in the result. Mr Baird selected Bannockburn as the field for his personal endeavors, while Mr Pyke was here, there and everywhere in Cromwell during the day—the result of the poll in this division showed that the veteran had not been idle. As the strongest voting power was at Bannockburn, naturally the principal interest centred in that division. It was generally thought that there Mr Baird would have a good majority, but the ballot showed quite the reverse—Mr Pyke polling nearly two to one over his opponent. In Cromwell this result caused considerable surprise, as a number of influential men were known to be exerting themselves on Mr Baird's behalf at Bannockburn. The voting in Cromwell itself gave evidence that the community was pretty evenly divided as to the merits of the two candidates, and this division stands out the bolder when contrasted with the block vote of Clyde. The poll at the latter township shows that with the electors there it was purely a question of Clyde versus Cromwell. Being a Cromwell man,—ability or no ability,—was sufficient in their eyes to justify the Clyde electors in renouncing Mr Baird. As the various returns came in, it became plain that the local candidate's chance was hopeless, the polling being almost two to one in favor of Mr Pyke.

It is difficult to account for the small number of votes polled within the electorate—466 out of a roll of nearly 800 voters. No doubt the particular day chosen for the election had a good deal to do with it, while probably the principal reason for so many not exercising their political rights was a carelessness as to which man represented the district, seeing there was so little to choose between their professed creeds. Notwithstanding the deep and wide-spread anxiety which the general elections have caused, it is remarkable that on the present occasion only 27 votes more than was polled at the last election for the Dunstan, in February, 1871, were recorded, the numbers standing—429 in 1871; and 466, in 1875. We give the figures of Monday's election in detail as officially declared at Clyde on Wednesday:—

CROMWELL ANNUAL RACES.

The Race Meeting of 1875 has come and gone, and fortunately it is our duty to chronicle it as a success, although there were not wanting omens of non-success. In the first place the entries for the various events were limited enough to have a somewhat discouraging effect, which was considerably strengthened by the broken, disagreeable weather that prevailed on Monday, and which promised to put a complete damper on the proceedings. Heavy rain fell on Monday night and Tuesday morning and up till noon things looked uncommonly gloomy. Fortunately, however, Old Sol asserted himself and broke through the clouds, raising the hopes of the promoters as well as allaying the fears of the holders of privileges, who began to think there was small show of their being recouped. From noon the day continued fine—not too warm, while the previous heavy rainfall had completely laid the sand of the plain, a luxury of itself which can only be justly appreciated by those who have suffered a couple of hot, dry days on a race-course in this section of the country. The attendance the first day was very good considering the late hour at which the weather cleared up, no doubt causing many from a distance to decide on staying at home. On the second day the number present was scarcely so great, but we noticed that the ladies mustered in greater force, adding largely to the freshness and variety of the scene. Of the races themselves much need not be written. They were only middling; and with the exception perhaps of the Steward's Purse on the second day there was not an exciting event during the meeting. This prize was between Charley and Wexford, and considerable money was laid about the latter. But he found a sticker in old Charley who clung to him throughout and landed the money by dint of as game a struggle as one could wish to see. But if the various prizes were easily won, they had the redeeming feature of being honestly run for. Every horse evidently ran on its merits, and the result was that the public did not begrudge the owner his good fortune. Strange to say, there was an entire absence of the "talent," which it may safely be said also contributed something to the smoothness with which everything went off. No did any little games grace the course, if we except a field pool, which apparently was voted a "square" game and allowed to proceed, no doubt much to the satisfaction of the proprietor, whose profits must have been handsome. However, he was generous enough to hand over £5 each day to the credit of the local hospital, which may to some extent account for his immunity from interference. We noticed one gentleman vainly endeavor to establish himself in the interesting and profitable (to the owner) game of "pop it down, gentlemen, 7's the main," but the vigilance of a lynx-eyed officer nipped the enterprising speculator in the bud. On the whole the meeting, if not exciting, was free from the many annoyances which in times past were tolerated, and indulgence in which too often brought sad reflection on the morrow. Much credit is due Sergeant McGann and his officers for the firm but courteous manner in which they performed their duties—duties which it is right to say were not of a very disagreeable nature, for during the entire meeting we did not notice half-a-dozen men the worse for liquor.

From liquor we naturally turn to the vendor of it, who on this occasion was Mr Charles Rylands. It is a pleasing duty to write that notwithstanding the disadvantages under which he labored the caterer gave the most entire satisfaction. The various spirits, wines, and beverages were "up to the hundle," and fully maintained the reputation for having things proper which Mr Rylands has already gained in this community. We noticed many little innovations and improvements at the hands of the boothholder which we hope to see carried out at future meetings. Notable among these was the Grand Stand being covered in by an awning—which on Tuesday and Wednesday served the double purpose of shading the spectators from the burning rays of the sun, and also sometimes afforded shelter from occasional showers. The refreshment tables were under the management of Mr Thomas Webb—we well attended to and amply replenished,—a fact which was testified to by the many appetites which sought to be satisfied. On the whole we must give Mr Rylands credit for having carried out his speculation to the satisfaction of those whom he set himself to serve, although whether he did so profitably to himself it would be more difficult to say.

A word of praise is likewise due the Stewards, who carried out the programme in a satisfactory style. As little time as possible was delayed between each event, and the meeting each day came to a close at a reasonable hour. Below we give details of the various races:—

FIRST DAY: TUESDAY.

MAIDEN PLATE, of 25 sovs. Weight for age. One mile and a half.
W. Taylor's g g Haricot, 5 yrs, 9st 4lb (Laing) 1
T. Keenan's c g Freestone, 3 yrs, 7st 3lb (Malone) 2
R. Stewart's c f Spina-way, 3 yrs, 6st 12lb (Clare) 3
P. Harrington's g g Bismarck, aged, 9st 6lb (Fraser) 0

A good start was effected by Mr Dawkins. Haricot and Freestone getting first on their feet. For the first mile, the former kept a firm lead, when Freestone was pushed up and kept a position close up to the gelding. Coming round the turn home it looked either one's race, as the colt was running strong. Haricot was not to be outpaced however and kept his position down the straight, winning by a couple of lengths. A protest was entered against Haricot by Freestone's owner on the grounds of his horse having been crossed by Laing several times; but after hearing evidence, the Stewards dismissed it.

GRAND STAND HANDICAP, of 40 sovs. One mile and a half.

T. Keenan's c g Gamecock, aged, 9st 3lb (Malone) 1
R. Kidd's c g Wexford, aged, 8st (Richardson) 2
W. Taylor's g g Haricot, 5 yrs, 7st 12lb (Clare) 0

After one false start, the lot got away well together Haricot having a slight advantage. To the mile post they ran in order Haricot leading, Wexford bringing up the rear. The Cock was well in hand all through and at the proper time was let out, overhauled the leader, and came away with comparative ease, winning by two or three lengths, Wexford distanced.

HACK SELLING RACE, of 15 sovs. Winner to be sold for 15 sovs.; surplus to go to the race fund. One mile. No weight less than 9st.

I. Loughnan's Frances, 5 yrs (Laing) 1
Laing's Flora, 6 yrs (Fraser) 2
Jackson's Biddy Mackay, 6 yrs (Monaghan) 3

Bungaree, Moonlight, Young Doctor, and Scamp also ran. The lot got well away, but the two mares at once cut down the field, which went round in a string. The winner was pushed at the finish by Flora in a manner which showed she had the winning power in her, if it had been so desired. Frances was submitted by Mr Colelough immediately after the race, when she changed hands at £21 10s, thus adding to the Club funds £6 10s.

FLYING HANDICAP, of 30 sovs. One mile. The winner of the Grand Stand Handicap to carry 5lb penalty.

T. Parsons' c f Mystery, 3 yrs, 7st 5lb (Richardson) 1
T. Keenan's b g Wild Manx Boy, aged, 9st (Malone) 2

Gamecock was scratched for this event, which may be briefly disposed of. The pair got a very even start, but the filly was the better guer, notwithstanding she carried 12lb overweight, and won easily. The winner came to the post in splendid condition, and was generally admired. Mr Keenan lodged a protest against Mystery on the ground that her age had been falsely stated. Pending official information on the point, the Stewards decided to withhold the stakes.

SELLING STAKES, of 25 sovs. Weight for age. One mile and a quarter. Winner to be sold after the race, and any surplus to go to the race fund.

R. Kidd's Wexford, aged, 8st 11lb (£20) (Richardson) 1
Newton's Pillbox, aged, 8st 11lb (Malone) 1

This was a gift to Wexford, who landed the money with ease. He was sold for £33, realising £13 to the funds.

SECOND DAY: WEDNESDAY.

HANDICAP TROTTING RACE, of 15 sovs. No weight under 11st. Distance, two miles.

W. H. Johnston's Lady Chips (scratch) 1
J. Scott's Mary Ann (125 yds) 2
H. Richardson's Scamp (250 yds) 3

Five others ran, variously handicapped from 150 to 250 yards. Scamp at one time looked a winner, but Chips got into her swing, gradually overhauled all competitors, and won easily. Mary Ann, considering she had just come off the grass, trotted remarkably well, but could not keep front place.

JOCKEY CLUB HANDICAP, of 60 sovs. Distance, two miles.

T. Keenan's Gamecock, aged, 9st 5lb (Malone) 1
T. Keenan's Freestone, 3 yrs, 7st (Malone) 2
W. Taylor's Haricot, 5 yrs, 8st 3lb (Richardson) 3

After some manoeuvring, the trio got away on pretty fair terms, Haricot if anything having the worst of it. They kept well together for a mile, when Gamecock gradually forged ahead, followed by Haricot, Freestone well up. Half a mile from home, the Cock began to creep away more decidedly, while his stable companion challenged the grey, the two racing stride for stride. Coming down the straight, Gamecock had the race well in hand, the other two contesting for second place, which fell to Mr Keenan's colt by a couple of lengths.

MINERS' PURSE, of 10 sovs. Three-quarter mile heats. No weight less than 9st.

George Partridge's Echo (Owner) 1
Biddy Mackay, Lady Lorn, Dandy, and Bungaree also ran, but both heats fell to Echo without any trouble.

STEWARDS' PURSE, of 40 sovs. Weight for age. One mile and a half. The winner to be sold (with his engagements) by auction immediately after the race, and any surplus to go to the race fund. Winner to be sold for £40; if entered to be sold for £30, allowed 7lb; if for £20, allowed 14lb; for £15, allowed 21lb; for £10, allowed 28lb.

P. Harrington's c g Charlie, aged, 7st 6lb (£10) (Potter) 1
R. Kidd's c g Wexford, aged, 8st 13lb (£30) (Fraser) 2
Newton's Pillbox, aged, 7st 6lb (Malone) 3
Kidd's Silvertail, aged, 7st 6lb (Richardson) 0

Haricot was scratched. For this event Wexford was the favorite, and a good deal of money was laid out on him. A good start was effected, but it soon became evident that Pillbox and Silvertail were out of it. The other two went round stride for stride, neither being able to shake the other off. Turning the straight they held the same position, and coming down a desperate struggle for victory ensued. But the weight was telling on Wexford, and by a game effort old Charlie added one more to the many prizes he has pulled off on the Cromwell course. This was certainly the best race of the meeting, and the winner was loudly cheered.

CONSOLATION HANDICAP, of 15 sovs. Distance, one mile.

Laing's Flora, 6 yrs, 9st (Owner) 1
Newton's Pillbox, aged, 8st (Fraser) 2
Harrington's Bismarck, 9st 6lb (Clare) 3
Stewart's Spina-way, 7st 12lb (Clare) 0

Flora was a hot favorite against the field, and justified the confidence placed in her by outting the pace out from start to finish.

This concluded the programme, with the exception of the Hospital Race for an amount (£43) collected on the ground by Messrs MacKellar and Dignan. This it was decided to postpone till next day (yesterday), when the race was won by Loughnan's Flora, her rider, Laing, being presented with a handsome whip. A few athletic sports were initiated afterwards to finish off the odd day, and thus satisfactorily came to a close the meeting of 1875.

DUNEDIN.

[FROM A CORRESPONDENT.]

December 27, 1875.

A shocking accident has occurred at the Ocean Beach to three gentlemen whose clothes and guns were found lying there, and who are supposed to have been drowned while bathing, and carried out to sea.

The successes of the Provincial party at recent elections is said to be due to the splendid organisation of a Committee formed to promote the return of their candidates.

The delegates from Christchurch to the Templars' Grand Lodge meeting have arrived. They include S. P. Andrews, G.W.C.T., with the other officers of the Grand Lodge, and other representatives to the number of 18. They were received at Port Chalmers by the principal members of Dunedin Lodges and Bro. Symonds from Arrowtown, and brought by steamer to Dunedin at 11 o'clock p.m. Bro. Hastings will scarcely be able to attend, as he is detained in Tasmania up to the 24th inst. The meeting will be held at the Oddfellows' Hall and it is expected that Dunedin will be the headquarters of the Grand Lodge. Either Bro. Jago or Bro. Adams will probably be elected G.W.C.T. It is expected that the balance-sheet will show a credit of about £500.

I met Mr A. Graham, formerly of Arrowtown, returning from the Palmer per "Ringaroona." He intends to try either the Nevis or the Arrow as he is quite disgusted with Queenstown. He says that the large shipments of gold reported as from Cooktown are mostly composed from various reefs on the different fields from a thousand miles of coast line. He only obtained about 4oz, and, fearing sickness, left. He saw Mr James Miller three months ago who was then working with Mr W. Aitkenhead at M'Leod's creek, but they were doing nothing, and Miller is likely to return to the Arrow. Aitkenhead got some gold some time back, but had been ill, while they both looked "thin on it." W. Colville was bullock-driving from Townsville; he knew nothing of Harry Eager. The Chinese were suffering as well as the whites from fever, &c. Altogether he would advise no one to go to the Palmer in spite of the "blowing" of the Cooktown papers.

A new evening paper is about to be started in Dunedin by some Auckland men, who have made a bad move by bringing down compositors from that city engaged for 6 months at £2 10s per week, current wages here being £3; so the "trade" is dead against the new paper.

A large number of visitors from Australia are flying round the coast attracted by our scenery and cheap excursion fares.

THE NEW PARLIAMENT.

The following table gives the result of the elections so far as they have yet gone. The affix A to the members name denotes that he is a supporter of Abolition; the other affix O that he supports the Provincial party. Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Counsel for the Deaf.—Those to whom seasons of changeable temperature are protracted periods of trial should seek the earliest opportunity of removing all obstacles to good health. This cooling Ointment, perseveringly rubbed upon the skin, is the most reliable remedy for overcoming all diseases of the throat and chest. Diphtheria, relaxed tonsils, sore throat, swollen glands, ordinary catarrh, and bronchitis usually prevailing at this season, may be arrested as soon as discovered, and every symptom banished by Holloway's simple and effective treatment. This Ointment and Pills are highly commended for the facility with which they successfully conquer influenza; they allow in an incredibly short time the distressing fever and teasing cough.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

RELIGIOUS DISTINCTIONS.

To the Editor of the CROMWELL ARGUS.

SIR,—I have no desire to give rise to any unpleasantness or to stir up class dissension, but I would like to know why it was that the children of the Roman Catholic persuasion were not invited to join the juveniles of another persuasion in their innocent amusements on Monday. This appears singular, inasmuch that last Christmas when the Roman Catholics gave a picnic the children of other denominations were cordially invited and participated in the various games. When the collectors went their round the parents of Catholic children subscribed, no doubt anticipating that their little ones would be requested to take part in the enjoyment. If it was intended they should not, does it not, Sir, seem unreasonable to honor the parents with a call and solicit pecuniary assistance?

I regret that such a course should have been adopted by the Committee, and as a Roman Catholic I think a slur, perhaps unintentionally, has been cast upon the members of that Church, and I sincerely hope a similar course will not be adopted in the future. I am, Sir, yours truly, MAXIMILIAN GALL.

The total gold escort returns of the Province of Otago for the present year amount to 112473ozs., as against 115,734ozs. for last year. The grand total since the discovery of gold in 1861 has been 3,161,944ozs., which at £4 per ounce gives a total value of £12,647,776.

We regret exceedingly to learn from a telegram which was received in town on the 22nd inst that Mr Charles Smith, who for many years was clerk of the Provincial Council of Otago, was drowned while bathing at Riverton on Tuesday afternoon. It seems that he had gone to bathe in the river, and that some time afterwards his clothes were found on the bank. The river was dragged on Tuesday night and all yesterday, but the body has not yet been found. Mr Smith took active part in social matters in Dunedin, and for several years past he has been a constant contributor to the Press. His pen has frequently been of valuable assistance to our own columns, as he was an able critic, and was thoroughly conversant with Provincial and Corporation affairs.—Otago Daily Times.

The Times Oamaru correspondent telegraphs that on Sunday news was received in town that a fatal affray had taken place at Reidtown, Kakanui on Chris mas eve at 10 o'clock. It appears, from the particulars kindly furnished by Sergeant Smith that two men named John M'Evoe and John Murphy, better known as Dublin Jack, were in the hotel drinking when a dispute arose. A man named Andrew Black attempted to prevent a quarrel, and in doing so was struck in the face by M'Evoe. Black retaliated and after three blows had been exchanged he struck M'Evoe a heavy blow on the ribs, when M'Evoe dropped down dead. Some sympathy is felt for Black, who appears to bear a good character and is generally a quiet young man. He is now in custody here. An inquest will be held on Monday. From what can be gleaned it appears that the prisoner only acted in self-defence, and that at the time he was endeavouring to prevent M'Evoe (the deceased) from striking a drunken man.

ARROWTOWN.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

Messrs Manders and Cope are engaged in canvassing the outlying districts and it is not probable that any other local candidate will dispute the field with them. It is, however, pretty definitely understood that Mr Bradshaw will enter the lists, as he has been influentially requested to stand. Mr Macassey has declined to contest. No positive expressions of public opinion have yet been manifested as to the policy most acceptable to this constituency, but I feel inclined to predict that Centralism will be favored, as few districts have suffered more heavily from Provincial neglect. With an undeveloped quartz field of vast extent in which good prospects in quartz are met with from time to time by the few who have the patience to explore the recesses of the country, the Government even haggle over the expenditure of a few pounds to construct a pack-track up the 12-Mile creek where good reefs are known to exist; and this neglect should be bitterly resented by the district. In spite of the obstacles thus left to vex and worry enterprise, I feel sure that good discoveries will be made, and if another battery is put up higher up the creek to test stone, many good patches will be obtained, and the larger reefs more efficiently opened. The aspect of the country is not inviting—naked rocks and patches of snow, but amid this the "foot of all evil" is undeniably present, and therefore is bound to be dragged to light. The Messrs Raven have parted with some small interest in their reef at a good figure, and are getting on well with their battery. A number of Chinese continue to scrape up gold over the old workings near Macetown, and a steady population of about forty Europeans are engaged in tunnelling and sluicing.

Sheepowners have laid their fingers on portions of the commonage by applying for areas of six thousand and ten thousand acre blocks, which will in all probability be granted to them. As cattle owners did not act honestly in paying their assessments, if they like this country they have only themselves to blame; so that all the agitation which resulted in the clearing of the commonage of sheep will end in the re-installment of King Wool with definite and permanent tenure, and it must be admitted that this is better than the continual discontent which the avarice of cattle owners and unauthorized flooding of the ground with sheep made chronic, is under that system a loss of revenue also resulted.

The new premises of the New Zealand Bank look well now they are completed and cause the surrounding buildings to look dwarfed and unlovely, having much the effect produced by a bright silk apron in an old print dress—the prettiest features in the vicinity being the neat gardens of the lower end of the town.

Municipal matters are quiet. The Corporation are getting quietly in debt, but much improvement has been effected. The water supply question flares up now and again and then subsides. The trouble about cows and horses trespassing has been compromised by a return to the old system of toleration—a truce on all sides seems to have been arrived at, and Christmas this time will find us at peace with each other—rival candidates excepted—and determined to make the season what I hope it will be with your readers—a happy and enjoyable one.

Nuptial Troubles.

An amusing case was heard recently at the District Court, Sydney, before his Honor Judge Dowling, relative to the payment for a sumptuous wedding breakfast and other nuptial arrangements. The plaintiff, the wife of a laboring man, related how the defendant, a seaman, lodged at her house for a month, how he then got married and had a wedding breakfast provided by her—this being made a very prominent feature in the case, and how he refused to pay for all this accommodation, though she was the wife of a poor man with a family of children to support. As the evidence was given in the most injured tone, it almost carried conviction until the story of the defendant was heard. This was as follows:—"You know I never slept for a month in the woman's house. The day I was married I went to her house with my wife and a young woman who was bridesmaid. We had breakfast, and would you believe it, your Honor, the woman only had three eggs and half a pound or a pound of bacon for us? (Laughter.) And there was some tea, but I did not have any. I bought a quart or two quarts of beer. (Laughter.) As there seemed to be no place to sleep I hid to the defendant I will go on board my ship." His Honor:—"What, on the day of your marriage?" (Laughter.) "Yes, your Honor; but the defendant said I will make a bed for you. You can go in that room and sleep there for the night. She gave us a sofa, but no bedclothes, and your Honor, you must know how we spent the night." (Renewed laughter.) This account of the circumstances quite changed the aspect of affairs, and after hearing some further evidence, his Honor gave a verdict for defendant, who had such a hard time of it on his wedding day.

AROMATIC TONIC BITTER WINES, which are not only agreeable beverages, but also have excellent medicinal qualities. The following is Professor Black's report:—

"University, Dunedin, Otago, N.Z.

"Laboratory.

"Class—Beverages."

November 5, 1875.

"I have examined for Mr J. D. Feraud, of Monte Christo, Clyde, Otago, two samples of Aromatic Tonic Bitters, with the following result:—No. 827 is a sherry colored, and No. 828 is a port wine red colored liquid; they are both perfectly transparent, showing the purity of the water and other substances employed in their manufacture.

"These two beverages have a slight acid chemical reaction, and possess an agreeable cool bitter taste, blended with a sensation of sweetness, arising from the saccharine matter of the fruit of which they are the fermental extract.

"I have also examined the aromatic and other flavoring substances used by Mr Feraud in their manufacture, and from the proportions in which they are blended with the fruit wine, they must be pronounced perfectly safe, and free from anything like deleterious properties.

"I consider these wines, therefore, an agreeable and perfectly safe beverage, and when diluted with three or four times their bulk of water, they will make a good cooling summer drink.

"LOOK THEN INTO THY HEART AND WRITE."

THE above sentence read carefully will tell all that I could in a thousand lines, it adapts itself admirably to a large number of cases continually coming under my treatment.

Many who "Look into their hearts" at the reading of this advertisement, and who ponder over it, will say, I know I should write, for I have a great secret there in my heart, hidden deep down, and I fear every day something will shortly shew itself by some plain symptom and make that secret known to my fellow men, and cause me to be pointed at as an object of pity or scorn.

"Look into thy heart" and say is it not better for me to seek aid and get relief by writing to one man in whom I have confidence, with whom my secret is safe, and whose aid and counsel will cause my life hereafter to be happy, making me say with the proverb—"Rejoice, O, Young Man, in thy Youth."

"Look then into thy heart and write," for hundreds have written to me when it has been too late, and who, in place of having "Children like olive-branches round about their table," have their homes desolate, and feel it a reproach upon their manhood to live.

"Look then into thy heart and write," and remember that "As thy days, so shall thy strength be," and that by writing down your case, no eyes but my own see it, that relief mentally and physically can be given to you and that in place of sinking into a dishonored and premature death, you can feel that, in the words of Wordsworth—"An old age serene and bright, and lovely as a Lapland night, shall lead thee to thy grave."

LOUIS L. SMITH.

In all the above cases, arising from error and the yielding to the passions, no time should be lost to at once arrest the progress of disease.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

ALL CURES MADE EASY!

Bad Legs, Ulcers, Sores, Bad Breasts, and Old Wounds.

No description of wound, sore, or ulcer can resist the healing properties of this excellent Ointment. The worst cases readily assume a healthy appearance whenever this medicament is applied, a sound flesh springs up from the bottom of the wound, inflammation of the surrounding skin is arrested, and a complete and permanent cure quickly follows the use of the Ointment.

Piles, Fistulas, and Internal Inflammation.

These distressing and weakening diseases may with certainty be cured by the sufferers themselves if they will use Holloway's Ointment, and closely attend to the printed instructions. It should be well rubbed upon the neighbouring parts, when all obnoxious matter will be removed.
A poultice of bread and water may sometimes be applied at bed-time with advantage; the most scrupulous cleanliness must be observed. If those who read this paragraph will bring it under the notice of such of their acquaintance whom it may concern, they will render a service which will never be forgotten, as a cure is certain.

Rheumatism, Gout, and Neuralgia.

Nothing has the power of reducing inflammation and subduing pain in these complaints in the same degree as Holloway's cooling Ointment and purifying Pills. When used simultaneously, they drive all inflammation and depravities from the system, and remove all enlargement of the joints, and leave the sinews and muscles lax and uncontracted. A cure may always be effected even under the worst circumstances, if the use of these medicines be persevered in.

Sore Throats, Diphtheria, Quinsey, Mumps, and all other Derangements of the Throat.

On the appearance of any of these maladies, the Ointment should be well rubbed, at least thrice a day, upon the neck and upper part of the chest, so as to penetrate to the glands, as salt is forced into meat. This course will at once remove inflammation and ulceration. The worst cases will yield to this treatment if the printed directions be followed.

Scrophul, or King's Evil, and Swelling of the Glands.

This class of cases may be cured by Holloway's purifying Pills and Ointment, as their double action of purifying the blood and strengthening the system renders them more suitable than any other remedy for all complaints of a scrofulous nature. As the blood is impure, the liver, stomach, and bowels, being much deranged, require purifying medicine to bring about a cure.

Eruptions, Scald Head, Ringworm, and other Skin Diseases.

After fermentation with warm water, the utmost relief and speediest cure can be readily obtained in all complaints affecting the skin and joints, by the simultaneous use of the Ointment and Pills. But it must be remembered that almost all skin diseases indicate depravity of the blood and derangement of the liver and stomach, consequently, in many cases, time is required to purify the blood, which will be effected by a judicious use of the Pills. The general health will readily be improved, although the eruption may be driven but more freely than before; and this should be promoted. Perseverance is necessary.
